CANANEA EXPECTS BATTLE NEWS SOON

Rurales Send Word They Are Close on Bandits and Fight Near

CANANEA, Sonora, Mex., Feb. 18.—Rurales and volunteers in pursuit of the malcontents have reported that they were within a few hours of them and that they expect to give battle to them within the next day. Messengers have arrived in Cananea reporting that the rurales have been keeping on the trail of the bandits since leaving Cananea, and that when leaving Bacochi, one messenger says, he was informed that a battle could be expected Sunday.

The malcontents seem to have doubled back after having visited Bacochi, and have been seen in the Manzanal mountains, one Mexican reporting that he had been relieved of his horse, fire arms, etc., by the band on Saturday morning.

Magdalena Affair.
The affair at Magdalena was nothing but a jail delivery, pure and simple, notwithstanding reports to the effect that a revolution had been started there. It seems that the prisoners, according to advices from Col. Koszarski, numbering 31, instead of 31 simply left the jail all armed with rifles. How the delivery was effected seems a mystery. Soon after gaining their freedom the prisoners scattered in all directions, some about seven, heading north, with the United States, their objective point seemingly.

Magdalena has not been troubled with political disturbances since the revolution, reports that everything is quiet there.

CERTAIN SIGNS OF POVERTY

Impressionable Child Sets Mother Right Regarding Financial Standing of Her Neighbors.

Small Sarah, observant and impressionable, ran into the house, excited and out of breath. She had been calling at a neighbor's house. "Oh, mamma!" she exclaimed, "I thought you said the Smiths were very, very rich!" "So I did, Susie," the mother replied. "The Smiths are understood to be worth millions." "Mamma," said the child, "I don't believe a word of it. I think they are very poor." "Why, Susie," remarked the astonished mother, "how did you get such an idea into your head?" "Cause I saw two ladies playing on a piano at the same time," was Susie's response. "That's often done," mother explained. "The ladies were playing a duet." "But that wasn't all, mamma. Mrs. Smith's hat looks for all the world like her kitchen colander trimmed, and George Smith was wearing his father's trousers." "Why, Susie," commented the mother, "how you talk!" "It's true, all the same, mamma. I know they were Mr. Smith's trousers, 'cause they were so long for George that he had 'em turned up at the bottom of each leg." Small Sarah was unfamiliar with trousers adorned with "cuffs."

RECKLESS DRIVING IS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

Drunken Drivers Run Down Pedestrian Whose Arm Is Broken

Alaska Chukovich, a well known Slav was run down by two drunken Mexicans driving a team on Naco road Sunday night about nine o'clock, and sustained serious bodily injuries, including two broken ribs. Chukovich is at his home in Dubacker canyon, where he was taken following his injury.

Chukovich and a friend were walking along Naco road Sunday evening when two Mexicans from Naco, Sonora, driving a rig hired from Wallace's stables at Naco, Ariz., drove up Naco road near the Miner's saloon at breakneck speed. The two men in the street attempted to get out of the way and Chukovich's friend was successful but he himself was knocked to the ground by the wild team.

The two Mexicans continued their wild ride up the canyon. A call for an officer was sent in to police headquarters and Constable Chas. N. Thom as took up the trail. It was a half an hour before he obtained the direction in which the Mexicans went and then though he looked through every Mexican settlement in the upper canyon, he was unable to locate the joy riders. In a buggy he drove to the divide in search of them but his horse was lame and he was unable to get up any speed.

It is reported to officers that the Mexicans came back through the city about 3 o'clock yesterday morning and when this was learned Officer Thomas telephoned to the deputy sheriff at Naco to arrest and hold the men. As no word has been received from the border city last night the Mexicans probably got across the international line before the Naco deputy was requested to arrest them. As they are doubtless known at the Naco livery stable they may yet be caught on the American side of the line and arrested.

Dogfish.
A fisherman from Montauk Point was telling his friends of catching a huge dogfish that had a most abnormal skull. The angler operated on his ugly and worthless catch, and found in the skull all that was left of a once strong rubber band. Evidently when that big dogfish was little some angler who had rigged up for cod or other bottom fish had caught the dog around its gills and turned it loose, expecting the tortured thing to die. That recalled the story of how some fisherman not so gentle and humane as the ruling angler treat the poor but pattering dogfishes when they are caught. Generally there is an empty beer bottle handy, and this is tightly corked and tied to the tail of the fish, which is thrown back into the sea. It goes to the bottom, of course, but the steady pull of that air filled bottle finally proves too much for its strength, and it comes flying up, all right, only to go down again and repeat the performance until the wretched thing dies. Frequently, when there is no beer bottle to be had, a piece of wood will do just as well, or just as ill!

Eastern Markets Yesterday

BOSTON, Feb. 19.—There was more general interest in the local market today than we have seen for a long time. Taking all together it is a most encouraging market. Mayflower and Old Colony led in activity with an advance of about a point each. Hancock was strong at the opening but failed to hold. Lake rallied easy toward the close but little stock was offered. Metal brokers are all optimistic in regard to the future of the metal and are so predicting a quarter of a cent advance this week. We believe in materially higher prices for the coppers and advise their purchase. Paine Webber and Co. Curb continue quiet with prices practically unchanged. Total sales New York 168,600.

The Prime of Age.

"I understand that Lemuel Holland has come back to Danby to end his days," said a former resident of the village to Peter Hobbs, the stage driver. "How old is he?" "He's only 89," said Mr. Hobbs, "and I guess you've made a mistake about his ending his days here. He came home so he could get the new library started and the bank organized right up to date, and see to the drinking fountain that's to be put on the green." "He calculates to spend a year or two with us, but he told me the other day he'd always promised his son out in California 't he'd pass the latter part of his life out there, and he's planning to go before he falls any, so's to have the full enjoyment of the trip across the country."—Youth's Companion.
